ART DE LA TABLE - PRICE LIST 2017

SELETTI

Ever since it was established in 1964 in Cicognara, Mantova, SELETTI has pursued its mission of making the most of professionalism, service and above all an endless product research, striving for improvement, innovation and originality. The company focuses on design projects and on the creativity which characterises Italian excellence. The collections contain art blended with daily life icons, objects that send a message of shape and function while conveying to its customers the vision for creating a unique, personal, fun lifestyle. Today Seletti aims at a new kind of production and daily life, an on-going journey within the idea of beauty.

10 years are passed since the birth of the table line ESTETICO QUOTIDIANO – the disposable design elements in porcelain and borosilicate glass – the brand's best-selling products. Ironic and refined this line celebrates its 10th anniversary with three new must-have elements all in borosilicate glass; the boiling pan, the carafe and the double barreled beaker.

The colour gold has always been prominent and important for Seletti – a symbol of distinct value. I-WARES: this line of tableware dresses itself in gold; brilliant and elegant, the new gold coloured finishes add a renewed sophistication.

DIESEL LIVING WITH SELETTI - PRICE LIST 2017

WITH

SELETTI

The iconic lifestyle brand Diesel and Seletti, the Italian brand globally known for its revolutionary designs, are now at their third year collaboration. The dedicated creative team of Diesel Living works closely with the Seletti design team on a collection made to be the perfect fusion between the Diesel lifestyle and the Seletti creativity and know-how.

“Life in Space” has always been a big inspiration for Diesel, together with the cyber punk futuristic approach. It is a mysteriously fascinating world that inspired several products with the shapes of spaceships and the details and textures from technical machinery. Cosmic Diner is the perfect expression of this reference world, where Spaceman is the protagonist together with the dining table set and Meteorite Glasses. This year’s addition to this collection will be the Quasar cutlery in golden stainless steel, a touch of class to complete the table set. Finally, we added the chopsticks, a tribute to our Asian friends.

Machine Collection is the “basic...not so basic” table set that we love. This time around, we added a touch of Silver to Its “classic” white look – a handmade Silver finish decoration which will give a sense of elegance to the Machine tableware.

The collection Work is Over - inspired by iconic construction tools - is composed by Helmet - a yellow porcelain Bowl, Tool Box - a blue ceramic box, and Cone - a red ceramic vase. In this collection we like to play with the primary colors that make it POP. Also, we will soon launch new pieces made in cement called Connection - two industrial inspired Vases which are a pop but also a refined addition to this collection, and Cover - a box made in cement where you can hide precious things.

A big novelty is the Wunderkammer, collectibles sculptures in gold coloured metal which will Rock your shelves!!! Inspired by the Motorcycle and Horror cultures: a Snake, a Human skull, a Wolf skull and a Bone are part of the Curiosity Cabinet. We have already begin collecting the objects called Wolf This Way, Culture Skulpture, Don’t step on me, Bone to be wild and there will be more to come...

SELETTI

Ever since it was established in 1964 in Cicognara, Mantova, SELETTI has pursued its mission of making the most of professionalism, service and above all an endless product research, striving for improvement, innovation and originality. The company focuses on design projects and on the creativity which characterises Italian excellence. The collections contain art blended with daily life icons, objects that send a message of shape and function while conveying to its customers the vision for creating a unique, personal, fun lifestyle. Today Seletti aims at a new kind of production and daily life, an on-going journey within the idea of beauty.

From a passion for architecture and art comes Luminaire; the creative idea of this line was formed during a visit to Salento - a beautiful part of Puglia in southern Italy - where elaborate wooden structures are traditionally fully decorated with thousands of small lights during religious festivals to great visual effect and a reinterpretation of this local tradition is carried into furniture design. Hybrid, the tableware collection that unites western with oriental culture has now become a line of incredibly appealing rugs, destined to make their appearance all over the home. Also Seletti's FURNITURE line is represented by its new collections; Heritage collection, a line consisting of furniture "made in Italy" which marries imagination to artisan traditions creating an unusual line of eclectic products with a sophisticated and elegant appearance.

Seletti meets Studio Job through an unexpected project that integrates accessible design to the unmistakable style of the creative duo from Antwerp and Amsterdam. The result is Industry Collection, a creative and aesthetically valuable furniture collection. Stefano Seletti, art director of the brand, recalls the origins of the project: "Many years ago we used to import traditional outdoor sets in metal, the typical vintage looking furnishing pieces. My dream was to have them reinterpreted by Studio Job because I thought that their unusual and highly symbolic patterns would be perfect to provide a contemporary touch. And now that dream has come true!". Also Studio Job's statement contributes to the introduction of the collection: "The Industry theme is indeed an icon in our language. For the edgy brand Seletti we've now re-designed this well-known but hyper kitschy garden set using the Industry iconography... Why garden? Well, have you ever seen rock and roll garden furniture? So, here it is! With gas masks, butterflies and many other graphics taken from the Studio Job archives". The outcome of this collaboration is the original set of chairs, armchairs, round and oval tables made of cast aluminum, available in different colors, and the new rubber cushion. Industry collection pieces are designed to facilitate transportation, thanks to the light-weighted material and their easy to disassemble nature. Thanks to the inspiring collaborations along with the brand's continuously creative attitude, Seletti furniture takes shape with unusual interpretations and interesting intuitions.

LIGHTING - PRICE LIST 2017

SELETTI

A monkey, an hybrid cup, objects from the cyber-space, women on the rugs, industry chairs, a bookcase from the Renaissance. There is a leitmotiv which links, in a subtle but very clear way, all of the many souls of SELETTI, all of their lines and inspirations. Art, design, entertainment, innovation and originality have been by Seletti synonym of Italian excellence and eclecticism since 1964. This means an amazing, never-ending journey which constantly evolves, continuing up to now. SELETTI is all of this and much more, as (R)EVOLUTION IS THE ONLY SOLUTION.

Seletti enriches their LIGHTING line even more, with new iconic products which precisely confirm, with a sprinkle of wit and humour, the avant-garde and art-oriented spirit of the company. A new project combines the uniqueness of Studio Job's artistic imaginary with the more democratic soul of Seletti. Two are the products included in this range: Banana Lamp, the precious object which brought to fame Job Smeets and Nynke Tynagel, characterised by its golden colour and available in three models - Huey, Dewey & Louie -, and Tiffany Lamp, a resin-glass lamp which reinterprets the luxurious Art Nouveau classic with a contemporary style. The fruitful collaboration between Seletti and successful Italian designers goes on: with Marcantonio, after the by now best-seller Monkey Lamp, the fascination of the artist for the natural world and for the fantastic imaginary does not die out, but, on the contrary, finds new forms and ways of expression. Mouse Lamp are three nice white mice made of resin, irreverent and stealthy; Elephant Lamp recalls a romantic world, a fairy-tale in which elephant and moon meet on the top of the hill, Moonlight is an irresistible lamp, a mysterious and charming moon. Gio Tiroto designs Verso, symbol of an everlasting rise/descent: an adjustable sculpture desk lamp which evokes movement in physical and spiritual terms, an object suspended between reality and fantasy. Caractère, 21 letters which can be fixed on walls or placed on any furniture and which express the endless possibilities of communicating words and thoughts, completes the catalogue of the luminaires alphabet, which has already become the best-seller of the lighting collection.

SELETTI WEARS TOILETPAPER - PRICE LIST 2017

TOILETPAPER

Exceptional collection of tableware and objects born out of the collaboration between Maurizio Cattelan and Pierpaolo Ferrari's TOILETPAPER magazine and Seletti. Black humour dipped in pastel colors, SELETTI wears TOILETPAPER is an unusual and exceptional collection of plates, mugs, tablecloths, bowls, glasses, baking dishes, teapots, tea towels and objects like, soaps, tables, umbrellas, mirrors, rugs, bags, candles, lampshades and table mats. A selection of images from the TOILETPAPER magazine become the decorative motif of the SELETTI wears TOILETPAPER design collection. A kitchen plunger, a rampant horse, the severed fingers (already on display on Manhattan's High Line billboard), a pulp interpretation of the famous "I love you", a toad in a sandwich, the apple-shaped Yin & Yang symbol and the eye with the eyelash curler. Tin, oilcloth, melamine, porcelain and wood are the materials used in the collection, perfectly aligned with the pop spirit of the magazine: cheap and widespread, never limited. "I have been a fan of TOILETPAPER since the first issue came out and I immediately wished I could use those wonderful images for our products", says Stefano Seletti, face and mind of the same name design brand. "I kept thinking how to take these pictures into the homes of our clients. Just one meeting with Maurizio and Pierpaolo was all it took to create a connection between us and to share the idea of mixing democratic and familiar materials like tin and plastic with unexpected images".

That's how SELETTI wears TOILETPAPER has become by far, the more up-to-the-minute range of homeware products proposed on the market today. Its exclusive character he adds "is not given by economic inaccessibility but, instead, by the intellectual audacity of those who choose to buy it". The style of the collection, a sort of label given by the unique humour and unlimited desire to experiment, is successful because it is applicable to a wide range of products, sold around the world, from the MOMA museum in New York to the Palais de Tokyo in Paris and at The Corner in London. The SELETTI wears TOILETPAPER fever is spreading, and it is only the beginning. "Right from the start we liked the idea that TOILETPAPER was a label that could be applied to a broad series of objects: magazines, books, plates, mugs and tablecloths. Pierpaolo and I are like sadistic scientists: everything that's around us can be infected by the TP virus, we continually test different samples and we analyze the results, so that TOILETPAPER can become a style, and not just a photographic one", says Maurizio Cattelan. "Just like TOILETPAPER's images, the collection designed with Seletti has a vintage charm; the tin mugs and plates look like they were just taken out from a fifties' kitchen pantry, the oilcloths from the drawers of a suburban inn". "We often have fun by making our pictures become objects, clothes, accessories" – says Pierpaolo Ferrari. "TOILETPAPER's images can become both a bathing suit and a Formula 1 car. The important thing is not to betray the spirit and nature of the magazine, which is ironic and unsettling at the same time. Today, thanks to Seletti, some images have become real objects, and we hope they will be a success". After the success of the rugs, the never ending desire to experiment takes the collection into the world of lighting for the first time with 12 new ceiling lights made from Perspex which give a new dimension to Cattelan and Ferrari's works.
